

Agile Project Management - Core

Managing and Adapting Projects in a World of Continuous Change.

Agile Project Management has become the go-to approach for managing projects in an evolving work environment. Adopting an iterative development framework sets itself apart from traditional waterfall methods. Although this approach may suit specific organisational cultures, workflows, and hierarchies, it can work exceptionally well in flat structure management styles and adaptive environments

The tools and processes in an agile model are far more flexible to individual workflows, collaboration, and feedback improvements that don't require comprehensive documentation steps. This can be useful in creating better client support models that adapt more quickly to change to project objectives

Agile Project Management – Core program is designed with an easy and practical approach. This workshop is a hands-on training session full of exercises and activities to help participants comprehend and apply Agile concepts and processes. Participants will learn the fundamental methods of Agile philosophy and understand how to customise an approach that best suits their unique organisational situation.

Designed for?

- > Anyone looking to learn the fundamental methodology and disciplines of Agile Project Management.
- > Those looking to expand their project management skills from a traditional understanding to an Agile approach.
- > An ideal group size is 6 – 15 participants.

Key Learning Outcomes

- ✓ Understand the principles and concepts of Agile.
- ✓ Apply continuous improvement and continuous planning methods.
- ✓ Understand the roles and functions of an Agile team.
- ✓ Develop a workable project communication plan and matrix.
- ✓ Know the qualities of an excellent Agile project manager.
- ✓ Maintaining control functions when using Agile methods.
- ✓ Defining project vision and client needs through collaboration.

Live Face to Face, Virtual or Hybrid

Power Sessions

Half-Day

1-Day

2-Day

Coaching

Contact Us

☎ 1300 762 461

✉ info@calcorporatesolutions.com.au

🌐 calcorporatesolutions.com.au